OUR HORIZONTAL FLIGHT SELECTION TRANSPORTS YOU ACROSS DIFFERENT PRODUCERS OF 'REPOSADO' TEQUILA, AGED 3 TO 12 MONTHS

"Reposado tequila is the first stage of 'rested and aged'. The tequila is aged in wood barrels. This is where the spirit begins to take on a golden hue and the taste becomes a good balance between the agave and the wood flavors. Many types of wood barrels are used for aging, the most common being American and French Oak. Some tequilas are aged in used bourbon/whiskey/cognac and even Wine Barrels, taking on a unique taste."

VERTICAL TEQUILA PRODUCER 'CABO WABO'

OUR VERTICAL FLIGHT SELECTION TRANSPORTS YOU WITHIN THE SAME PRODUCER FROM THEIR UN-AGED BLANCO TO AN AGED ANEJO

"The Tequilana Weber Blue Agave is the core of Cabo Wabo Tequila. The plant is harvested between 8 and 12 years. The Agave is cooked in stone steam-heated ovens, and then smashed and ground to remove the Agave nectar. Fermentation follows and is completely natural, with no chemicals added. Cabo Wabo Tequila is then distilled twice to remove impurities and refine the aroma and alcohol content."
